Chapter 1 by Magdalene

He saved me. I didn't believe in them & now I regret that. I was attacked and beaten but he saved me. He wore a mask that covered his forehead & below. His eyes were red slits, I couldn't see them but his hair was pale white. I could've died but he found me worth saving. I asked him who he was but he stayed quiet as he began walking out of the ally. I pondered for a moment and then looked up just before he turned the corner.

"You're one of the heroes aren't you?" I asked quietly.

He turned, the red slits dimming a little bit, "Not anymore, I'm not."
